Frank Mahovlich drops puck to start the Annual Staff-Student game. The Staff won again. (Ho-Hum! )

Members of Staff and Student teams meet at centre ice after gladiatorial combat.

Mr. Jack Dockeray, President of Quarterback Club gives Fr. Les Costello the evil eye. Fr. Les is in the "sin-bin" where he belongs.

Great hockey players of today and yesteryear, who at one time or another played for St. Mike's Majors and Buzzers, returned to our Arena for the Bruce Draper Memorial Game. The Ice Palace was packed to the rafters and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the contest which featured thrilling hockey and some rather funny antics by the one-and-only Father Costello.

Dave Keon and the Big M take off for a dual attack into the Buzzer Zone. Watch it "kids".

The Big M returns to the St. Mike's Arena much to the delight of his many fans.

Cal Gardner, former N.H.L. member of the "Old Pros" battled his son Dave along the boards.

The incomparable Tim Horton, N.H.L. All Star defenceman, returned to his Alma Mater for the BIG game.

Who can forget this "little giant" who was a great star with the Majors? As a Pro he has been and is a man of distinction with The Maple Leafs.

Billy, the number 2 seeded Junior in Canada, outlasted his opponent to be declared the tennis champion at Saint Michael's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armstrong and Mr. Yolanda Cira, Secretary of The Guild.

Second Vice-President Mrs. O'Hara with her husband, Dr. John O'Hara.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Burkett were Patrons of the Double Blue Ball. Mrs. Burkett is Social Convener.

Father G. Kennedy and Father R. Holmes were Panelists at one of the several Theological Discussions sponsored by the Guild.

MY FAIR LADY...

Father Norman Fitzpatrick, C.S.B. Producer and Director.

Eliza Doolittle (Cathy Robbin) and Henry Higgins (Brian McKay) and members of the Cast at one of the early rehearsals.

The Concelebrated Folk Mass for members of the Production was held every Sunday and . . .

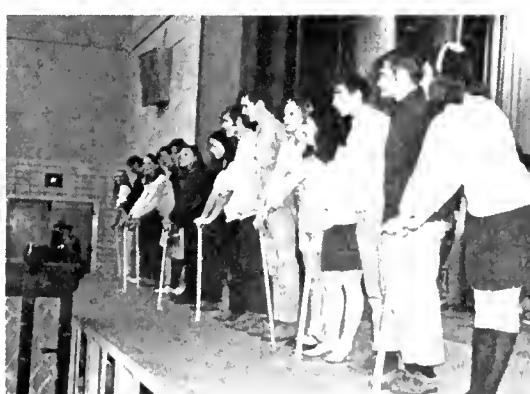

The music was supplied by Mr. Van Lare and The Group which consisted of John Salt, Peter Land and Kelly Mulhall.

The Singing Ensemble in rehearsal.

Enthralled! Mary Anne O'Hara and Daphne Pierre, members of the Dancing Ensemble.

At the Ascot! This is what it looked like at rehearsal. On the next page is the real thing.

MY FAIR LADY

Jamie, Alfred P. Doolittle and Harry were played by Steve Snell, John Hobbs and Michael McCabe, and here they are "stopping the show" with their rendition of "With A Little Bit of Luck."

Eliza and Henry in the Library having one of their many arguments while Mrs. Pearce (Mary Rose Azzarello) and Colonel Pickering (George Komorowski) listen in.

At the Ascot on a July afternoon. The horses have gone by the Club House for the first time . . .

. . . and when they approached the wire, Eliza screamed one of her many funny, funny lines . . . "Come on, come on Dover! ! ! Move your bloomin' ass."

At Covent Garden the dancers and singers help Alfred P. Doolittle to "Get Me To The Church On Time."

. . . and then followed that wild, exciting dance . . . and once again we had a "show-stopper".

Three o'clock in the morning, everyone has gone to bed, and Eliza is alone to sing beautifully "Just You Wait."

John Edmonds who played the part of Freddie Eynsford Hill was a delightful trouper especially when he sang the popular "On The Street Where You Live".

Eliza, the Colonel and Henry leave Higgins' study for Eliza's big test at the Ball where she was to meet the world renowned speech specialist, Zoltan Karpathy.

The Ballroom of the Transylvanian Embassy, and Zoltan is on the landing waiting to pounce on Eliza as soon as the opportunity arises.

The Embassy Waltz... The dancers, the choreographers, and certainly the Stage Production Staff are to be complimented for the gorgeous settings and an exciting production.

Front and Center... Brian McKay steps forward to acknowledge a wild acclamation for his fine performance as Henry Higgins.

HERE AND THERE...

The Chapel, which is situated directly below the Tower of our attractive school, was redecorated a couple of years ago. These two pictures show the beautiful and original positioning of the Fourteen Stations of the Way of the Cross. The unique and comfortable seating arrangement, along with other new features, add a warmth and fascination that is admired by those at home and from abroad.

A Man For All Seasons . . . Joe Monaco. Joe is a member of the Graduating Class. During his sojourn at St. Michael's, he has been closely associated with the technical end of the drama and musical productions. He reached his peak of achievement this year when he was appointed Stage Manager.

OUTSTANDING! Our T.D.C.A.A. Basketball Champions.

Pat Lee, a member of this Championship Team, with some of the hardware they won in 1969.

Every morning and every afternoon of the school year the House League teams took over the Arena, great rivalry . . . Great spirit . . . GREAT FUN!

After the House League games the teams representing the school in organized competition took over. When the Irish and the Michael Power teams opposed one another there was always a packed arena. This picture was taken after St. Mike's had scored an important goal against the Power House from Islington.

...AROUND THE CAMPUS

On Sunday March 16th the Old Boys' Association of Saint Michael's College School held its Annual St. Patrick's Day Mass and Communion Breakfast. The guest speaker for the breakfast was an Old Boy of the early '50's. He is the well-known left winger of the Montreal Canadiens, Dickie Duff. After a great career as a Buzzer and Major at St. Michael's he graduated to the Maple Leafs and spent eight tremendous years with that organization. For the past five years he has been with Les Habitants. A year with the Rangers was sandwiched in between those two phases of his hockey career. Thanks for the visit, Dick, and may the Luck of the Irish be always with ye.

Mrs. Martha Shortt, Mrs. Joan Sullivan and Mrs. Margaret O'Hara are enthusiastic workers of the Parents Guild. Their efforts and those of others made the Theatre Party Night a tremendous success.

ATHLETE OF THE YEAR, 1968

During his sojourn at Saint Michael's Paul Morrison was a scholarship student and an outstanding athlete in three major Varsity Sports. In football and hockey his coaches said that he was a good, steady, capable athlete. It was in Track and Field that he was outstanding. He set school records in the one mile and two mile events. He set a winning tone for his contemporaries as a distance runner. Paul won a hockey scholarship to Penn State University. In his first year he was selected as a member of State's Cross-country Team. Congratulations, Paul.

Mrs. Judy Flynn and Mrs. Kay Corner are active members of the Parents Guild. They, too, helped to make the "My Fair Lady" Night a Night To Remember.

NOMINEES FOR QUEEN OF THE BALL

Who will be Queen of the Ball? This was the question that was asked constantly and continually during the week of March the tenth. To find the answer to that question please turn to page 135. The party this year was held on Saturday, March 15th, at the Roof Top Gardens of the Royal York Hotel. Pete Scholfield and His All Stars supplied the delightful and varied program of music for the dancing. The following pages tell in pictorial form the Story of the Double Blue Ball in 1969.

Linda Gallant

Ann Allen
St. Joseph's (Morrow Park)

Ann Marie Lyn
Loretto Brunswick

Cathy Mastromatteo
St. Joseph's (Wellesley)

Eddie Zaccato and Arlene Meschino.

Leo Buccilli and Silvana Frasca.

Pal DiJulio and Elizabeth Mette.

Pat Jordan and Anne Marie Quinlan

John Brennan and Carolyne O'Hearn

Tony DiZio and Angela Baldazzari

Pat is puzzled . . . Tom Egan and Sheila Weaver are relaxed and happy . . . while Charlie is impressed with his friend Irene Orsi.

There was a Queen . . . but there was a King too . . . he holds court outside the Ball-Room . . . Father Iredale and friends.

Terry Long with Mary Rose Azzarello, and John Bertram with Patsy Maynard enjoy the dance. Joe Monaco and friend are impressed with their shines. Suzanne is just waiting.

Mr. Hugh McDougall and his lovely wife, Eleanor, and Mr. Dan Prendergast with his pretty Sharon were on the dance floor for the slow ones.

At times the music was fast and torrid . . . here it was just torrid.

The clock has struck twelve . . . the announcement has been made . . . and Karla is stunned. She is the Queen of The Double Blue Ball for 1969.

Miss Mary Hanson, the Queen of the Ball in 1968, places the crown upon her head and declares, "You are Queen Karla, Queen of The Double Blue Ball, 1969."

Bob Goldham moves in on John Hirst in the Pro-Old Boys vs. Buzzer game. Bob coached The Majors in 1959. He is known across Canada, for his contribution to the T.V. "Hockey Night in Canada Show."

Over a thousand people were packed into our arena when the Buzzers lined up for the playing of the National Anthem prior to the official face-off.

Roger Galipeau was a Buzzer in 1959. He returned ten years later to take his place among the Stars of Yesteryear at Saint Michael's.

Mr. Hugh McDougall drops the puck between Dave Keon, who played for Bob Goldham as a Major in 1958, and Paul Regan, a Star with the Buzzers in 1969.

Members of the "Mock Band" of the Booster Club practising for one of the many events at which they were featured (?)

If you were one of the loyal followers of the St. Michael's teams during football season you might be able to find yourself in this section of the large crowd. If you were there you would have seen . . .

. . . one of the Shortt-Jones Extravaganzas such as a Power-Puff Game.

. . . or you might have seen a Staff-Student Soccer Match.

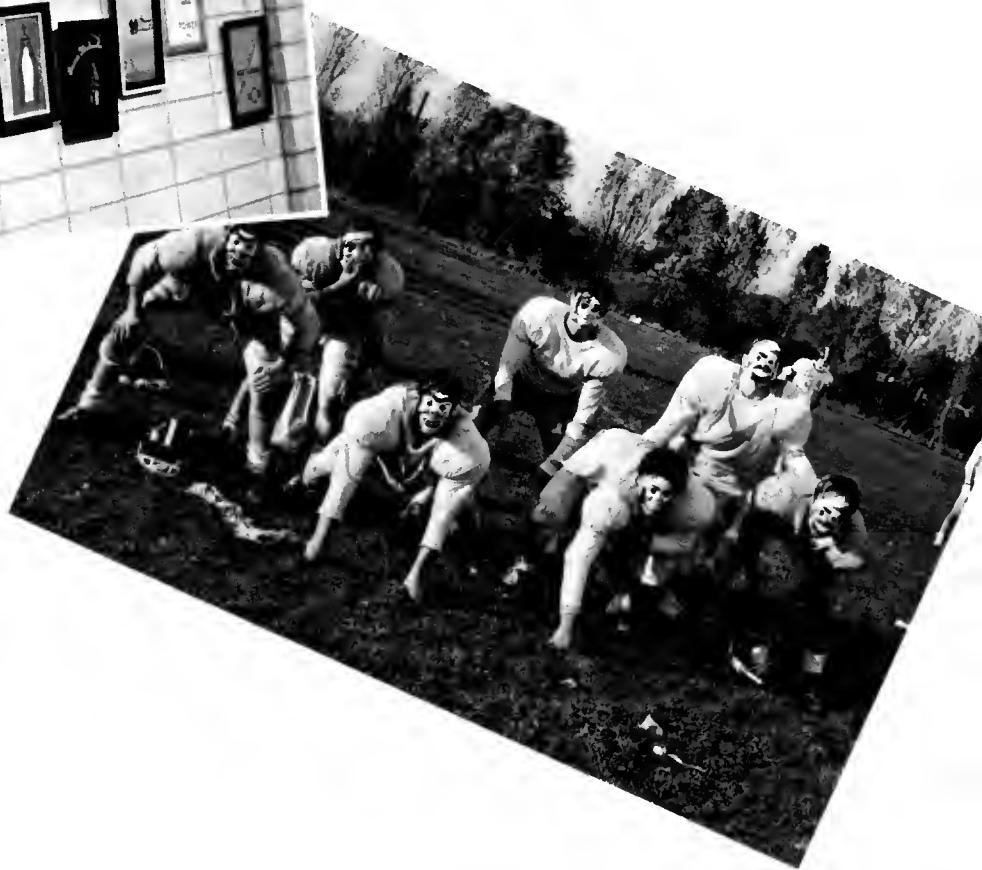

. . . and if you were really lucky you would have seen a wild run down the sidelines for a touchdown.

. . . or just a wild man running.

TO THE OLDER BOYS OF ST. MICHAEL'S

Many of the Older Boys of the Bay Street school, the earlier followers of Boozer Brown, owed a great deal of their academic success to their frequent trips and urgent appeals to the Sisters of the Precious Blood of Jesus, across the way on St. Joseph Street.

This little Chapel was a haven to those of us who didn't study enough and needed refuge and comfort around exam time. The Chapel received a steady flow of students and those walls resounded with entreaties for help.

Now it is the Sisters' turn-they need help. The old building on St. Joseph Street finally came down. They have a new home-a building on St. Clair Avenue, East, and they have a campaign under way for $250,000.

In these times, it is very hard to raise money but I feel the Sisters can count on their friends to help them establish their new home.

If you are able, please send a contribution to:

Sisters of the Precious Blood,
Building Campaign Fund,
1145 Yonge Street,
Toronto 7, Ontario.

It is a three year campaign so, if you would write or telephone 923-0943, we would be pleased to send you a brochure and pledge card.

Sincerely,

Paul McNamara,
Chairman.
